

Please leave the Wisconsin NO-Call list legislation as it is. We pay for our phone lines for our own use, not as a channel for others to pester us. If something is worth saying and notifying me of, it can be mailed to me. Businesses have no right to intrude into my home uninvited. Quality of life has improved since the list went into effect and we should not be forced to backtrack. Thanks, George Lehman.